The Call of the First Apostles

This Sunday we read about the call of the Apostles. What is striking about this account is how those first Apostles immediately dropped everything to follow Jesus.

In the world of today we all have so many commitments, so many things that keep us in one place, that it is hard to conceive of just letting go of everything in order to follow the Lord. It is easy for us to believe that at the time of Christ there were fewer commitments and obligations and so believe that it was easier for the Apostles to let go of their day-to-day commitments.

But if you think about it, we soon realise that this cannot have been the case. In a society much poorer than ours it was even more important to secure a regular income. With bigger families and the responsibility of looking after the elderly there were also more commitments and obligations to the extended family.

So, let us not think that it was easy for those Apostles to make such a radical commitment to Christ. Let us instead take them as our inspiration and endeavour to follow the path that they walked; maybe not by leaving our families but by committing ourselves wholeheartedly to spreading the teaching of Christ.

This year the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is from 18th to the 25th January. Church Unity Week always concludes with the Feast of St Paul.

You cannot do a kindness too soon,
for you never know
how soon it will be too late

Father Alex

We continue to be grateful to our supply priests following Fr Alex's departure from the parish. As most - but perhaps not all - know, Fr Alex has had to return to his religious Order on 31 December due to health issues. He is being looked after by his Order. We pray for his full return to good health. Those who would like to send Fr Alex cards and messages of thanks and prayerful good wishes are asked to give them to the parish office, where they will be forwarded to Fr Alex.

Father Tibor and Father Ian

We welcome Fr Tibor who will be looking after our Parish until a permanent Parish Priest has been appointed. Masses, as published in the Bulletin, will be shared between Fr Tibor and Fr Ian until further notice.

Always do right;
this will gratify some
and astonish the rest

Beacons

It was lovely to see so many of you at Beacons enjoying a friendly and relaxed afternoon with a hot drink and a piece of cake. The raffle prizes were magnificent and all in all we raised £155 for the RUHX in loving memory of Moira Horton who enjoyed Beacons' warm atmosphere for years. Next Beacons will be on February 19th and we look forward to seeing you all there.

Social Events

There will be a Ploughman's Supper on the evening of Friday 2nd February. Please do put your name on the sheet at the back of the church by Sunday 28th January if you would like to come. If you would like to help with this or other social events please do let the social committee know.
